LUARD SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
Junior Year at a British University

STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC CREDIT

In offering the Luard Scholarship, it is not the English-Speaking Union's desire or purpose to delay for a year the attainment of the Bachelor of Arts by the applicant. We therefore request that the following statement be signed by the appropriate university official:

Should (name of student)_____ receive a Luard Scholarship, subject to our approval of the course of study which the student chooses to pursue during his/her junior year at a British university and providing that he/she completes the required academic curriculum meeting the ESU's and the host British university's satisfaction, we confirm that the applicant will expect to receive full academic credit for his/her junior year at the designated British university.
