

Luard Scholarship
Junior Year at a British University

FULL ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP Offered by:
The English-Speaking Union of the United States
144 East 39th Street
New York, New York 10016

The English-Speaking Union of the United States is proud to announce the competition for the 2010-2011 Luard Scholarship. The Scholarship enables a current student attending a UNCF school, Howard or Hampton universities to spend his or her junior year abroad at a British university.

The Scholarship funds round trip transportation, tuition, room & board, books and necessary expenses for the academic year.

The Scholarship is open to students of all majors who are U.S. citizens. Candidates must excel academically and demonstrate strong leadership skills and community involvement.

Candidates must demonstrate interest in international affairs or culture or issues of global significance.

Candidates must feel confident that they will be able to adjust readily to living and studying abroad for a full academic year.

For further information and application forms, please contact the college official below:

Completed Applications Due in New York City by Monday, Nov. 23, 2009

Finalists will be invited to New York City for a personal interview with the Luard Scholarship Committee in early January at the expense of The English-Speaking Union.